After Life Mass Market
The novel opens with Aunt Polly scrounging the house in search of her nephew, Tom Sawyer. She finds him in the closet, discovers that his hands are covered with jam, and prepares to give him a whipping. Tom cries out theatrically, “Look behind you!” and when Aunt Polly turns, Tom escapes over the fence. After Tom is gone, Aunt Polly reflects sadly on Tom’s misdeeds and how she lets him get away with too much.

Tom comes home at suppertime. He tells his story, and Aunt Polly is satisfied. She feels that Tom has done all he should for one day, and the next day she will be skiped school that afternoon and go to visit his Uncle #3. Tom cries for his fried chicken, but Aunt Polly is still angry with him. Tom’s half-brother, Ben, is there to help Aunt Polly with her chores. Tom and the new arrival are sent out to pick up the chicken for dinner, but Tom’s heart is not in it. He chases the chickens all the way home.

When he returns home in the evening, Tom finds Aunt Polly waiting for him. She notices his dirty clothes and resolves to make him work the next day, a Saturday, as punishment.

On Saturday morning, Aunt Polly sends Tom out to whitewash the fence. Tom passes by, and Tom tries to get him to do some of the whitewashing in return for a “white alley,” a kind of miracle. Tom almost agrees, but Aunt Polly appears and chases him off, leaving Tom alone with his thoughts.
