The novel opens with Aunt Polly scouring the house in search of her nephew, Tom Sawyer. She finds him in the closet, discovers that his hands are covered with jam, and prepares to give him a whipping. Tom cries out theatrically, “Look behind you!” and when Aunt Polly turns, Tom escapes over the fence. After Tom is gone, Aunt Polly reflects on Tom’s mischief and how the boys are yet away with too much.

Tom comes home at supper and tells of the day’s adventure. He tells of how he was skipped school that afternoon and went looking for a lost watch. He bought a new horse and drew the two that own to school. Tom’s half-brother, Dick, is3 / 8

Tom goes out of the house and down the street. He met Huckleberry Finn, who was whistling. While wandering the streets of St. Petersburg, Tom and the new arrival, Huckleberry Finn, met and eventually chased the newcomer all the way home.

When he returns home in the evening, Tom finds Aunt Polly waiting for him. She notices his dirty clothes and resolves to make him work the next day, a Saturday, as punishment.

On Saturday morning, Aunt Polly sends Tom out to whitewash the fence. Jim passes by, and Tom tries to get him to do some of the whitewashing in return for a “white alley,” a kind of miracle. Jim almost agrees, but Aunt Polly appears and chases him off, leaving Tom alone with his tasks.
