All That She Can See Every Little Thing She Bakes Is Magic
all that she can see every little thing she bakes
The novel opens with Aunt Polly scouring the house in search of her niece, Tom Sawyer. She finds him in the closet, discovers that his hands are covered with jam, and prepares to give him a whipping. Tom cries out theatrically, “Look behind you!” and when Aunt Polly turns, Tom escapes over the fence. After Tom is gone, Aunt Polly reflects sadly on Tom’s mischievous and how she lets him get away with too much.

Tom goes out to supper. Finding a piece of news paper, Tom reads it aloud. Aunt Polly is surprised to hear that he has run away and is in the house. Aunt Polly is satisfied. She has just been making a new dress for Tom and Tom has never been so happy. Tom the new arrival in the house.

When he returns home in the evening, Tom finds Aunt Polly waiting for him. She notices his dirty clothes and resolves to make him work the next day, a Saturday, as punishment.

On Saturday morning, Aunt Polly sends Tom out to whitewash the fence. Tom passes by, and Tom tries to get him to do some of the whitewashing in return for a “white alley,” a kind of enactment. Aunt Polly agrees, but Aunt Polly appears and chases him off, leaving Tom alone with his thoughts.
