The Insanity Of God A True Story Of Faith Resurrected
The novel opens with Aunt Polly scouring the house in search of her nephew, Tom Sawyer. She finds him in the closet, discovers that his bands are covered with jam, and prepares to give him a whipping. Tom cries out theatrically, “Look behind you!” and when Aunt Polly turns, Tom escapes over the fence. After Tom is gone, Aunt Polly reflects sadly on Tom’s misbehavior and how she lets him get away with too much.

Tom comes home at suppertime. He is nervous and has about his adventures. During supper, Aunt Polly tells Tom that he will not be skipped school that afternoon and that she has found his straw hat, but Tom’s half-brother Sid is stealing bread and butter from the lard and she stuffs it into Tom’s mouth. Aunt Polly is satisfied. Tom goes out of the house to whiten his shoes. He is whistling. While wandering the streets of St. Petersburg, Tom and the new arrival, Jim, are met by a passing stranger and eventually chased the newcomer all the way home.

When he returns home in the evening, Tom finds Aunt Polly waiting for him. She notices his dirty clothes and resolves to make him work the next day, a Saturday, as punishment.

On Saturday morning, Aunt Polly sends Tom out to whitewash the fence. Jim passes by, and Tom tries to get him to do some of the whitewashing in return for a “white alley,” a kind of marble. Jim almost agrees, but Aunt Polly appears and chases him off, leaving Tom alone with his task.
