The novel opens with Aunt Polly scrounging the house in search of her nephew, Tom Sawyer. She finds him in the closet, discovers that his hands are covered with jam, and prepares to give him a whipping. Tom cries out theatrically, "Look behind you!" and when Aunt Polly turns, Tom escapes over the fence. After Tom is gone, Aunt Polly reflects sadly on Tom's misdeeds and how she lets him get away with too much.

Tom comes home at suppertime. He tells Aunt Polly about his adventures. During supper, Aunt Polly asks if Tom has been skipped school that afternoon and what evidence there is that his collar is still worn from the day before. Aunt Polly is satisfied. Tom goes out of the house into the kitchen and plays his harmonica. While wandering the streets of St. Petersburg, Tom spots Huckleberry Finn. Finn has been expelled and acestant. Tom sees the new arrival and eventually crosses the newcomer all the away home.

When he returns home in the evening, Tom finds Aunt Polly waiting for him. She notices his dirtied clothes and resolves to make him work the next day, a Saturday, as punishment.
